Perry Construction Management Implements Leadership Changes

Adjustments made to Better Align with Strategic Goals and Accelerate Growth

Perry Construction Management (PCM) announced today organizational changes to accelerate growth of the company with the adoption of EOS®, the Entrepreneurial Operating System®.

The following changes are effective April 1, 2021:

- Ron Perry continues as President and Chief Executive Officer with a refined focus. Filling the Visionary role from Traction, Ron will spend more time than ever doing what he is most passionate about: building a fantastic corporate culture and expanding the company into new areas.
- Greg Myers has been named to the new position of Chief Operating Officer. As COO, Greg will fill the Integrator role in Traction for PCM. He is responsible for day-to-day operations, business planning, and team member development. Greg will continue to lead the Federal Government business unit.
- Kevin Frye continues as Program Director for Food and Beverage and senior technical lead for the company with refined focus on CM support, quality assurance, project performance and client deliverables.
- Joe Carroll has been named to the new position of Director of Sales and Marketing. Joe is responsible for revenue and overall company growth in new clients and projects.

This organizational realignment will put the ‘right people in the right seats’ and, improve the company’s ability to help clients achieve project success with superior construction management services.

“Implementing E.O.S. is all about increasing our effectiveness in helping clients,” said Ron Perry, who founded PCM 2015. “These changes will allow each leader to apply their unique abilities more directly to improving the success of clients and PCM. I am incredibly excited and look forward to the positive results.”

Perry Construction Management, LLC is a service-disabled veteran-owned small business (SDVOSB) founded in 2015.
